

THE NORTHERN WHITE RHINO TIMELINE

- 1973 Estimated year of Sudan's birth.
- 1980 Suni born in captivity in Dvůr Králové Zoo.
- 1989 Najin (Sudan's second daughter) born in Dvůr Králové Zoo.
- 2009 Four northern whites (Sudan, Suni, Fatu and Najin) moved to Ol Pejeta Conservancy in Kenya to try and promote breeding.
- 2014 October – Suni, the youngest of then living northern white rhino males, dies of natural causes.
- 2015 July – Dvůr Králové Zoo loses Nabiré.
- 2017 March – Sudan's health deteriorates, long-term medication has to be administered.
- 2017 December – Sudan develops a series of age-related wounds and infection.
- 1975 Six (two males, four females) northern whites captured and taken to Dvůr Králové Zoo in then Czechoslovakia.
- 1983 Nabiré (Sudan's first daughter) born in Dvůr Králové Zoo .
- 2000 Fatu (Sudan's grand-daughter) born in Dvůr Králové Zoo
- 2010–2012 Northern white rhinos observed to be mating, but matings do not result in pregnancy.
- 2014 November – Vets confirm that neither female are able to breed, and Sudan's sperm count is low.
- 2015 November – San Diego Zoo loses Nola, leaving only three northern white rhinos in the world, on Ol Pejeta Conservancy.
- 2017 April – Sudan is featured on a Tinder campaign to raise money for rhino IVF and rehabilitation.
- 2018 March – Sudan dies at Ol Pejeta Conservancy, leaving his daughter and grand-daughter as the last two remaining northern whites rhinos in the world.

